Description of Programs

Main goals are:

- To engage individuals, and their family members, when possible, in becoming more self-sufficient and self-reliant through education, vocational training, cognitive skill development, anger management, alcohol and other drug education, life skill development, employment readiness, and guidance in obtaining gainful employment.
- To assist individuals in confronting maladaptive behaviors that have lead to legal problems and decreased their ability to be productive members of society.
- To reduce jail/prison overcrowding in a way that reduces the financial burden on the community and the State and still maintains a high level of public safety through intensive supervision of AIC clients. In addition, some clients are expected to give back to the community in the form of community service.

...through Case management, Educational/Vocational Training, Alcohol and Drug Education, and Community Service Programs.

Stamford Youth Serving Organization Description

Description of Programs

Licensed by the State of Connecticut, the KidsPlace after- school program is open to JCC members in grades K-5. The KidsPlace rooms provide homey nooks and crannies where children can play in comfort after school.

Daily developmentally and age-appropriate games and activities give the children a sense of security and stability during afternoon hours. Snacks are provided twice each afternoon. Children are broken into three groups, kindergarten and first grade, second and third grade and The Clubhouse, designed specifically for the needs and interests of fourth and fifth graders.

Kids design their own program by choosing from a variety of electives. There are three hour long periods each day and participants choose from 2 activities each hour. The after school schedule includes electives such as counselor-assisted homework time, swimming, sports, cooking, arts and crafts, and games to name a few.

For children who are interested in dance or sports there are many classes offered through various JCC departments for an additional fee and are all available to KidsPlace participants. KidsPlace counselors will escort children to those classes and back to KidsPlace.

On days when the public school is closed, the JCC offers thematic vacation day programs (either trips or in-house special entertainment) from as early as 8 am to as late as 6 pm.

In order to be enrolled in KidsPlace, families must be a member of the Jewish Community Center. Membership is open to everyone. No one is denied membership because of race or religion. For membership fees and information, please contact the Membership Director at 203.487.0945.

For more information or to register for KidsPlace, please contact the KidsPlace Director at 203.487.0973

Stamford Youth Serving Organization Description

Description of Programs

Summer is the joyful season of long days and firefly nights when children build self-confidence and discover the world around them. It's a magical time to experience the outdoors, explore nature, develop socially and acquire an extra measure of independence. At the JCC we help your children create meaningful, memorable summers by providing a safe, wholesome environment and the opportunity to learn through new experiences and enriching activities.

The delightful grounds of the JCC provide the perfect setting for SummerPlace daily activities. Facilities include a swimming pool, tennis courts, playing fields playground, and outdoor picnic and activity areas. At the JCC, rainy days are never a washout, thanks to our extensive indoor facilities which enable all activities to continue at full peak, no matter what the weather.

Specialists lead activities including sports, nature, arts and crafts, and dance/music to name a few. In addition, participants will also choose from a variety of electives allowing them to focus on the specialized activities they like the best. Our American Red Cross certified swim program strives to make every child feel comfortable in the water, enhance their skill levels and help them develop aquatic skills that will serve them for a lifetime. Each session will feature theme days, either in-house entertainment or field trips depending on age.

Description of Programs

For students in grades 6 – 8, independence and autonomy are key. At The Zone, middle school teens participate in a semi-structured and semi-supervised after-school program specifically designed for their needs and interests. Upon arrival at the JCC, participants check in with the counselor at The Zone. Every day there are a variety of activities to choose from, including racquetball, shooting hoops, swimming, playing tennis, or organized games on our outdoor fields. Homework assistance is available, as well as baking projects, craft projects, and other activities of interest. Snacks are always served. The Zone is also a great place to just hang out with friends.

For teens who are interested in dance or sports there are many classes offered through various JCC departments for an additional fee and are all available to the Zone participants.

On days when the public school is closed, the JCC offers thematic vacation day programs, usually trips to places of interest to teens.

In order to be enrolled in the Zone, families must be a member of the Jewish Community Center. Membership is open to everyone. No one is denied membership because of race or religion. For membership fees and information, please contact the Membership Director at 203.487.0945.
