Description of Organization	The DITR... organization has 9 programs. The organization is a holistic experience that seeks to cultivate the artistic talents of youth to adults in the areas of fine art, creative writing, drama, music, media, promotions, outreach, and enhancing positive life skills. Its’ target audience for youth are ages 8-21; primarily towards those most would consider “at risk” youth from inner city demographics, but not limited to. DITR also reaches adult women survivors of abuse, and families. The mission of DITR is to channel artistic talents as a vehicle for positive expression and good coping proficiency; develop the aptitude for positive life competency for building inner peace, healing, and strength thereby creating better individuals, stronger families, and productive communities; and creating an atmosphere to deepen spirituality and a holistic experience. DITR’s purpose is to build on talents; elevate self-esteem; promote self-expression; provides encouragement, guidance, coaching, enhancing self-value and self- worth motivating and inspiring youth, women, and family’s to be positive change agents, to excel, and exceptional leaders for their communities.
